

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, head-aches, and all other ailments.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. A very reliable druggist who may not have it in hand will procure it promptly for anyone who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

ARE YOU TROUBLED WITH USE Billiousness-
Constipation
KRESS' Indigestion
Liver Complaint
LIVER Fever & Ague
Piles
Nervous and Sick-Headache

[illegible][illegible]

B. Hallist & Co.,

FEBRUARY 1st, 1890

THE ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS & MANITOWA RY., and its branches became the

GREAT - NORTHERN RY. LINE

IF YOU ARE GOING TO THE FREE FARMS OF THE MILK
RIVER VALLEY,
— TAKE THE —
GREAT - NORTHERN - RY. - LINE!
TO THE GOLD, SILVER, COFFEE, IRON

AND COAL MINES OF MONTANA,
—TAKE THE—
GREAT - NORTHERN - RY. - LINE!
TO GREAT FALLS, THE FUTURE INDUSTRIAL CENTRE OF THE NORTHWEST,
—TAKE THE—
GREAT - NORTHERN - RY. - LINE!
TO HELENA, BUTTE, SPOKANE FALLS AND THE COAST CITIES.
—TAKE THE—
GREAT - NORTHERN - RY. - LINE!
TO FARGO, CROOKSTON, GRAND FORKS AND WINNIPEG,
—TAKE THE—
GREAT - NORTHERN - RY. - LINE!
To All Minnesota, South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, to the Cities of

and Manitoba Provinces,
—TAKE THE—
GREAT - NORTHERN - RY. - LINE !

For tickets, maps and guides, apply to our home ticket agent or write to
F. L. WHITNEY,
Gen. Pass and Ticket Agent,
GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY,
St. Paul, Minnesota.

==THE GREAT NORTHERN RAIL-WAY LINE runs its own Magnificent
Pullman Tourist, Palace Sleeping Cars, Special Equipment Cars and Free Reclining Sleepers==
Daily Through Trains.

A detailed illustration of a Pullman sleeping car, showing its side profile with multiple windows and a classic design. The car is oriented horizontally.[illegible]

FAIR BROS. & CO.,

Successors to J. E. Fogle & Co.

Having in the last few days bought the entire stock of the well known firm of J. E. FOGLE & CO., we desire in behalf of the retiring member to thank our customers for their patronage during the past. When we retrospect the past, we can but feel flattered at our success. Coming among our strangers, we have by fair dealing built up a trade equaled by none in Ohio county.

OUR MOTTO IS: FAIR DEALING—HIGHEST GOODS AT LOW PRICES.

While some are asleep, others will watch. So it is with us, always on the alert, trying to find items of interest for our countless customers and always discounting our competitors. Now that Spring is almost upon us, we have some RARE BARGAINS to offer you in the way of

LADIES' CLOAKS, MEN'S AND BOYS' OVERCOATS, BOOTS AND SHOES.

It is not our habit to carry Winter Goods over Summer and hand them down in the Fall as new goods, but instead, we put them down at prices that make them move and are thus enabled to always show our trade NEW GOODS. A word to the Ladies about our line of

FINE CUSTOM-MADE SHOES!

We have received for Spring far the most stylish and Durable Shoe ever brought to this market. Also have them in Childrens Heel and Spring Heel. $1.50 buys an Extra Quality Douglas Kid Shoe, as good as any $2 shoe in existence. We mention especially this week a line of

EARLY SPRING STYLES IN GINGHAMS!

Suitable for immediate use; you should see them before buying. We shall endeavor to keep in view the wants of our customers, and supply them at all times with articles that competitors cannot touch in price or quality. Thanking you for your trade, we cordially invite you to

Visit HARTFORD TEMPLE OF FASHION

Many Times During 1891.

FAIR BROS. & CO., PROPRIETORS

Hartford Weekly Herald.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12.

Heavy Run Rail Road Time Table:

EAST.
No. 2-Mail and Ex.	7:42 A.M.
No. 3-Limited Express	8:00 A.M.
No. 4-Local Pass. & Mail	8:10 A.M.
No. 10-Local Freight	10:30 P.M.
WEST.
No. 1-Mail and Ex.	7:42 A.M.
No. 2-Limited Express	8:00 A.M.
No. 3-Local Pass. & Mail	8:10 A.M.
No. 10-Local Freight	10:30 P.M.

Param Bell at Waterford & Son.

New Goods arriving daily at the Trade Palace. M. M. KANS.

If you want quinine go to Waterford & Son.

For fine Lubricating Oils, go to Waterford & Son.

J. S. Vaught wants to trade a new sewing machine for a horse. 41tf

118 suits received at the Trade Palace Saturday to be sold for less than ever.

M. M. KANS.

When this you go, go to the Trade Palace and get a nice new suit of clothes, cheap. M. M. KANS.

Mr. J. D. Coleman has been quite ill of throat trouble for three or four days, but at present is convalescing.

J. F. Felix and Mrs. Jennie Nell were married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

The highest market prices paid for all kinds of country produce at Sullenger & Barnett's. Goods in return at reduced 10 per cent. profit.

For anything you may need in the general and fancy grocery line, call on Sullenger & Barnett. They sell at strictly 10 per cent. profit.

Mr. John T. Howard has located at Aurora, Mo., formed a partnership with J. C. Carson & Morton—headquarters for country goods of this kind.

For anything you may need in the general grocery line, call on J. C. Carson, Hartford, Ky. Special attention given to all orders of traveling salesmen.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

SUICIDE.

Mrs. Lucella Benton Martin Tires of Life and Hange Herself from a Rafter on the Porch.

A TALE OF A SAD LIFE.

Mrs. Lucella Benton Martin took her own life by hanging from a rafter Monday night, some time shortly after midnight at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. John B. Ward, three and one-half miles north-west of Hartford, near No Creek church.

The first indication Mr. Ward had of the suicide was early yesterday morning when he arose to make up the fire, and on going out on the porch, a sight met his eyes that almost chilled the blood in his veins. There before him, hanging from a rafter, was the dead body of his wife, strung, moving gently as the wind blew around it. To arouse the household and inform them of the dread occurrence was but the work of a few moments. The body of the sister and aunt was taken down from its place of death and the hands of kind and sympathetic neighbors, who had gathered in, prepared it for burial.

The woman was crazy at the time, and had been so for the past year or so. Her life in rather a sad one, with not much happiness and much sorrow. Her peculiar temperament derived and deplorable. She was the daughter of A. Benton, who prior to his death, lived in the No Creek neighborhood, and her early womanhood, she was married to John Martin, of Morgantown. Her life was not so happy as it might have been, although her husband did not especially ill-use her. His neglect of her, though, told on her intellect, and finally her husband took her to Mr. John B. Ward's place and left her as a deserted wife.

While living at the home of her sister, her troubles were not the less, but she became insane, and was sent to Hopkinsville for treatment. Reason again returned under the quiet treatment she received there, and the husband, who had once deserted her, took her back to his home, where he lived with her but a short time, again deserting her, and procuring a divorce.

Once more she found a refuge in the home of her sister, where shortly thereafter a baby girl was born to her. As time dragged along, her mental trouble, real or imaginary, became too strong for her, and the doctor, who weakened once more under the strain, and once more she became an inmate of the asylum at Hopkinsville.

About two years ago, or less, she was thought to be well and came back to Mr. Ward's to live. For the past few months she exhibited signs of returning insanity and was closely watched at day and night in her room at night. Monday night she arose from her bed, seized the door and got out on the porch. There she clung upon the porch railing, deliberately a rope around a rafter over her head, fastened the other end securely around her neck and swung into eternity.

Such is the history in brief of this sad, sad life. The remains will be buried at the Alexandria burying ground to-day.

The tragedy.

Corner J. W. Bradley was summoned to hold an inquest over the remains. Upon arriving at the scene of suicide, he found the body of the deceased hanging by her neck from a rafter over her head.

Geo. W. Bunker returned from New Orleans last Saturday night, where he had gone to look after some real estate interest. We are informed that his trip, in a measure, proved a success.

Mr. J. B. Mallick died yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock. He had been ill for some time, and his death was not unexpected. The funeral will occur to-day.—Owensboro Messenger.

The bargains "cars and other" offer in wooden remnants and winter goods that we propose to close out at once, are being rapidly exhausted. Call and get the benefit of these bargains.

This will be remembered in buying shoes that "Anderson's Wear-Proof Shoe" is the best and most satisfactory and consequently the cheapest shoe ever sold in Ohio county. Call on Anderson's Bazaar for "Sars and M."

Rev. J. T. Cusheer, of Rockport, this county, was in Hartford Sunday night, the guest of his brother, Mr. J. C. Caswell. He conducted general exercises at College Monday morning, taking for subject of his lecture, "Honesty." His talk was practical and interesting. He just home from a three week's protracted meeting at Eureka, Ind., where he assisted the Rev. S. O. Christman.

Mr. Jas. May, of South Carrollton, has purchased of Mr. W. T. Lea his farm, situated two miles east of Hartford, and will move to the same on some day. He can cross the waters. Mr. May is a first-class citizen and a high-toned gentleman. Mr. Lea will probably move back to Owensboro. Mr. Lea has made a good deal of money in the coal business, and he will be missed by his many friends.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

Messrs. O. D. Reed & Son have discovered a vein of very fine coal at Forkville on the east side of Clark's mine, within a short distance of the railroad.

If you want cabbage, potatoes, onions, lead peaches, muskell, nines meat or anything good to eat, call on Carson & Morton—headquarters for things of this kind.

"Sarsaparilla" will loosen bowels at cents each; pure linen towel at 25 cents per yard; 1 dozen tea buttons for 5 cents; cut iron jaws at 20 cents a yard; imported Saxony yarn at 10 cents a pound; many other items at proportionate prices. So that the above is a good bargain and think well of his prospects.—Owensboro Messenger.

Charles Davidson and Miss Maggie Payne will be married at the home of the bride, near town, on the 11th inst. Rev. G. J. Bean officiating.

TWO YEARS IN STATE PRISON.

The Special Term of Court Sends J. F. Alford to Penitentiary for Horse Stealing and Postpones the Trial of R. B. Bair to the Regular May Term.

MINOR MATTERS.

A special term of circuit court convened in court hall Monday, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready, the defendant, by its attorneys, entered a plea of guilty. A jury was empanelled and a verdict of guilty returned, and, by consent, the punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Owing to the severe illness of his daughter, J. F. Alford was not present. In Judge Little's absence, attorney J. E. Fogle was elected to defend him.

Hon. Joe Nease in session Monday morning in court hall, called to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Fred Burgess, charged with murder, and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford, charged with horse stealing. The case against Burgess was called and Commonwealth vs. J. F. Alford was postponed until called and was granted a continuance to the May term on account of absent witnesses. The case against J. F. Alford was then called, the Commonwealth announced ready

